School of Continuing Education

July 30 – August 19, 2017 | Red Deer College

"I loved how welcoming everyone was. It was so nice to come here alone and leave with new friends."

– MusiCamp Alberta 2016 Student

"I love this camp and wish I never had to leave."

– MusiCamp Alberta 2016 Student

What is it?

MusiCamp Alberta is the provincial overnight summer music workshop. The faculty is comprised of world-class performers and teachers from professional ensembles, who work to cultivate artistry, discipline and an appreciation of music. Musical creativity is encouraged and the importance of each student is recognized.

MusiCamp Alberta offers an immersive musical experience second to none and a summer artistic and personal transformation that will last a lifetime. Practice time, faculty recitals, master classes, chamber music, rehearsals, performances and organized recreational activities complete the camp experience.

Be sure to check the MusiCamp website for faculty bios and camp updates at www.musiccampalberta.com and follow us on Facebook, @MusiCampAlberta!

Where is it?

Red Deer College Arts Centre Red Deer, Alberta

MusiCamp Alberta workshops are held in the Arts Centre at Red Deer College in Red Deer, Alberta. This world-class performing arts facility is the perfect venue for musical success.

Students live in the residence facilities on campus which consist of apartment-style accommodations. Each suite contains 4 single bedrooms with locking doors, a bath and kitchen/living area. Housing is arranged by age, gender and program so you will room with other members of your ensemble.

The college cafeteria will provide full meal service and can accommodate those with dietary restrictions.

What else?

It's not just about music! Our team of trained supervisors ensures that every student is safe and well taken care of, twenty-four hours a day. Recreation activities include campfires, skit nights, dances, dorm activities and games.

David J. Peterkin Symphonic Band

July 30 – August 12, 2017

Recommended if you are entering or have completed either Grade 11 or 12 with at least three years' experience on your instrument. Included are full band rehearsals, small ensembles, private lessons, practice time, musicianship classes and faculty and student performances.

Francis E. Dunnigan Concert Band

July 30 – August 5, 2017

Recommended if you are entering or have completed Grade 8, 9 or 10 with at least two years' experience on your instrument. Included are full band rehearsals, small ensembles, private lessons, practice time, musicianship classes and faculty and student performances.

Jazz Band Workshop

August 6 – 12, 2017

Dive into the world of jazz music and refine your skills in improvisation, listening, style, phrasing, charts, chord reading and soloing. This workshop is perfect for if you have little or no jazz experience or if you are an advanced player wanting to build more skills.

Musical Theatre Intensive + Performance

August 6 – 19, 2017

Looking to take your musical theater experience to the next level? Students participate in an additional week of skill building classes and personalized coaching in acting, voice and dance. Join forces during performance week to put your skills to work producing and performing popular musical repertoire! Recommended if you are entering or completing Grades 9 –12. Mature students interested in participating who do not meet the grade recommendation, please contact the Camp Director.

Musical Theatre Performance

August 13 – 19, 2017

Become the next triple threat as you learn vocal technique, performance ability, and choreography – all while taking part in the production and performance of popular musical repertoire. Recommended for students Grades 7 – 12 with any level of experience.

What does it cost?

Fees include registration, tuition, accommodation, meals, a t-shirt, lanyard and recreational fees.

1 week workshop: $695

2 week workshop: $1195

Scholarships & Bursaries

There are a number of scholarships and bursaries available for students interested in attending camp. To apply directly for a scholarship or bursary please refer to the application forms and additional information on our website www.musiccampalberta.com. Deadline for applications is April 30, 2017.
